

Campaign Set for Hospital Nurses Residence

Women's Auxiliary Project

The Women's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital, instrumental in the campaign that gained funds for construction and equipment for the hospital's 26-bed addition last year, will spearhead a drive to finance a nurses residence at the hospital.

Chairman Mrs. C. K. Curran said yesterday that the Auxiliary will conduct a series of events throughout the desert area in an attempt to procure funds for the purpose.

PLANS FOR THE residence have been completed by the architectural firm of Williams and Williams, who designed the original buildings.

"The greatest need our community has at this time is a suitable residence for nurses," Mrs. Curran said. "We cannot hope to attract the highest type of nursing to Desert Hospital unless we are able to provide such a facility."

The Auxiliary, through a series of other fund-raising campaigns, has already refurbished and redecorated the hospital's lobby, dining room, patio and nurses rest rooms. Also included in Auxiliary work has been purchase of wheel chairs and refurbishing and redecoration of the visitors waiting room.

THE 64-BED HOSPITAL is a district hospital, constructed with bond monies and through contributions of willing citizens. It serves Palm Springs, Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert from a 7½-acre site donated by the U.S. Government.

Included in the Auxiliary's campaign are a furniture rummage sale on Jan. 15 at Pavy's, a new members tea on Feb. 13, at a location yet to be announced, and a "phantom" benefit which will be conducted by mail.

Gasoline Barge Explodes; Fire Under Control

PASCO, Wash. (UPI) — A barge unloading its cargo of gasoline exploded here this morning, causing a fire which threatened 16 storage tanks before it was brought under control.

The barge, City of Longview No. 835, had pumped out most of its cargo of 328,000 gallons but still had about 50,000 gallons aboard when the explosion occurred.

THE BLAST RATTLED windows a mile away and hurled a portion of the superstructure 75 feet. A portion of the barge remained above water and burned fiercely. Flames swept beneath the dock causing about $25,000 damage to the dock, Pasco Fire Chief Lyle Cooney said.

Walter Pirtle, 29, Kennelworth, Wash., was hurled into the water but made it to shore and was taken to Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital here where his condition was reported as fair.

THE STORAGE TANKS, about 150 feet from the barge fire, were kept drenched to prevent any explosion.

"We were lucky the winds were blowing away from the tanks," said Cooney.

Cause of the explosion was not known. Firemen fought the blaze for more than three hours before bringing it under control.

Solution for 99?

Machine Halts Roaming Sands

State highway engineers have been invited to witness the operation of a wind machine that may solve part of the desert's sand-blasting problem.

The machine is a turbine that spreads a gooey blend of waste pulp and water over sand dunes, forming a hard crust to halt shifting sands.

FRANK HAMERSCHLAG, city public works director, reported on the effectiveness of the machine at last night's Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee meeting.

Hamerschlag, who witnessed a demonstration at Bermuda Dunes, suggested that this method of holding down wandering sand dunes might be a partial solution to the Highway 99 sandblast problem.

Village Newcomer Robert Marx Elected To Lead Desert Circus for 1959 Event

MANGLED WRECKAGE hampers police officers and fire department rescue crewmen struggling to free a motorist trapped in the driver's seat. The driver, Frank Weiner, of Los Angeles, was instantly killed when his auto was involved in a head-on collision on North

Palm Canyon Drive Saturday. His wife died at Desert Hospital a short time later. Four other persons were injured, one critically, in the same crash. (Desert Sun Photo)

Pair in Accident Escape Injury; Jailed for Theft

Two men escaped serious injury when their car flipped over at Windy Point last night — but both motorists wound up in jail on auto theft charges.

Highway patrol officers from Banning identified the auto theft suspects as Lynn Martin, 29, of Compton, and Henderson James Howard, 29, of Los Angeles.

The CHP investigators said the car was heading towards Palm Springs on Highway 111 when it ran off the road, clipped an embankment, flipped upside down and skidded back across the highway.

Martin went to Riverside General Hospital for emergency treatment of minor injuries and then both men were arrested when a routine check revealed that the auto was stolen from Los Angeles, the CHP reported.

Both Martin and Howard denied driving the car, officers said, but both are regarded as suspects. Martin is in the hospital prison ward and Howard is in county jail.

One Remains on Critical List in Two-Fatality Crash

Ontario Motorist Lee Dante, 31, was still in critical condition here today from injuries suffered in a two-car Palm Canyon Drive crash that killed a Los Angeles man and his wife Saturday afternoon.

Fatally injured in what police regarded as a high-speed, head-on collision were Frank Weiner, 61, and his wife, Mary, 48.

THREE OTHER victims of the crash are still under treatment at Desert Hospital, but Dantes is the only one listed as critical. He suffered internal injuries, fractured ribs and a brain injury, hospital officials said.

Reported in "good" condition at Desert Hospital are Nathan Weiner, 54, brother of the dead man, and his wife, Bessie, of Chicago, also 54.

Weiner is under treatment for severe facial fractures and lacerations. His wife suffered lacerations.

JOYCE HARVEY, 18, of San Bernardino, is also in good condition. Hospital officials said she suffered a lacerated leg.

Police Sgt. Nick Maff reported that the crash occurred on North Palm Canyon Drive, near San Rafael, late Saturday afternoon. The cars, driven by Miss Harvey and Frank Weiner, crashed head-on "apparently at high speed," officers said. It was not immediately determined which car was in the wrong lane.

DANTE WAS A passenger in the car driven by the 18-year-old girl. Weiner and his brother were riding in the front seat of the second vehicle. The women were in the rear.

Weiner, trapped in the driver's seat by twisted steel buckled in the impact, was dead when police arrived.

His wife was catapulted into the rear of the front seat by the force of the crash and suffered a crushed chest. She died at the hospital a short time later, police said.

MEMBERS OF THE fire department rescue squad worked for 20 minutes to free the trapped driver from the wreckage. Weiner was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital but police said he was apparently instantly killed.

Traffic Sgt. Robert Young said a coroner's inquest will be held this afternoon. He added that no citations have been issued for negligence but reported that Miss Harvey was cited for failure to have a driver's license.

Other officers elected were Frances Crocker, of Palm Springs, vice president; Dick Kite, of Palm Desert, secretary; and Claude Cobb, of Wonder Pains, treasurer.

Members of the committee's board of directors are Dr. C. S. Johnson, outgoing CVAPC president; Paul Clark, Art Cavanaugh, Mrs. Minna Welcome and Herb Ecclesstone.

All officers and board members were elected by unanimous acclaim.

REV. W.A. BLONDON GOES TO SAN PEDRO

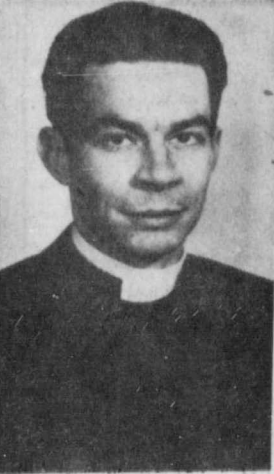

The Rev. William A. Blondon, Jr., Rector of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church, Palm Springs, announced to his congregation Sunday that he has accepted a call to be rector of St. Peter's Parish, San Pedro, effective Feb. 1, 1959.

"It is not easy to leave Palm Springs," Father Blondon said. "This has been our home for seven years. Mrs. Blondon and I will be parting with close friends, as well as a congregation that has been loyal, cooperative, and rewarding to me as a priest. 'I hope,' he continued, 'your prayers will be with me in my new position, as mine will be with you and your new rector.'"

FATHER BLONDON came to St. Paul's in the Desert in January, 1952, from St. Paul's Cathedral in Los Angeles, where he had been Assistant to the Dean. He received his master's degree in chemistry from Claremont College in 1946, then entered Church Divinity School of the Pacific, Berkeley, receiving his divinity degree in 1949.

He has been active in Palm Springs civic affairs, both on a personal basis and as a representative of the Episcopal Church. His wife, Frances, is president of the Katherine Finchy P-TA, and member of service clubs. The Blondons have two sons, William III, age 9, and Matthew, 6, who was born during their residence here.

ROBSON CHAMBERS, senior warden of the Vestry of St. Paul's said, "The Vestry received Father Blondon's announcement with deep regrets. We feel that St. Paul's has benefited tremendously from his guidance during a period of great growth in the parish. St. Peter's Parish is indeed fortunate in having him as its rector and pastor."

Chambers also stated that the Vestry has written officially to the Rt. Rev. F. Eric Bloy, Bishop of Los Angeles, requesting his recommendations for a new rector at St. Paul's. A committee has been appointed to survey recommendations and make suggestions for a final selection.

Rountree Itinerary Secret After Iraq Mob Stones Car

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI) — American officials today clamped a secrecy ban on the Baghdad movements of Assistant Secretary of State William C. Rountree to forestall mob demonstrations against him.

Rountree, touring the Middle East on a fact-finding mission, was whisked to safety unharmed Monday when a mob stoned his automobile and shattered the windshield. No one was hurt.

REPORTS REACHING other Mid-east capitals from Baghdad said an extremely tense situation existed in Iraq and that a Communist attempt to take over the government could be expected at any time.

The attack on Rountree occurred as he was returning from a courtesy call at the Palace of the Sovereignty Council to the U.S. Embassy four miles away. A stone shattered the windshield on the driver's side of the car but did not go through it.

ROUNTREE'S CAR also was stoned when he left the airport on

State to Be Honored Still Poses Problem; List Slashed to Three

Palm Springs newcomer Robert Marx, president of the Marval Construction Co., last night was unanimously elected to the post of chairman of the 1959 Desert Circus, and a new slate of officers was named by association members.

Elected to lead the organization for the coming year were Jimmy Morton as president; Bill Foster, vice president; Berta Sanders, secretary; and Hugh Brinkley, treasurer.

THE BOARD OF directors includes Mayor Frank Bogert, Ray, Corliss, Jimmy Cooper, Mac McDonald, Sam Janis, Ed McCoubrey, Eliza Stotzer and Florence Murphy.

The selection of a state to be honored at the 23rd annual Desert Circus celebration from April 1 to 5, was a major problem and after a lengthy discussion suggestions were cut from five to three, Illinois, Colorado and Washington. The other two suggestions were Wisconsin and Oregon.

MEMBERS OF THE committee expressed the desire to have publicity on the choosing of these three states, and asked to hear from the public as well as officials of the suggested states before the final determination is made.

A preliminary discussion was held into the possible changing of the format of Desert Circus, and three new events were suggested, including a horse show, antique car rally, and jazz festival.

Suggestions of other events that might put new interest into the annual Desert Circus event were asked by the executive board, and anyone who has a suggestion is invited to submit it by writing to Bob Marx at 508 Industrial Place. All suggestions will be considered by the board.

MARX, WHO IS the first man in many years to be given the job without a co-chairman, is 28 years old, and has been in Palm Springs for two years.

He is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Palm Springs Kiwanis Club. Prior to entering the construction business he was public relations manager of network program promotion for CBS. He also worked as a producer and assistant director for Columbia Studios.

Only Temporary

Cold Wave Break Promised in East

United Press International
A warming trend surging out of the plains today promised at least a temporary break in a record December cold wave gripping the East.

The warmer weather, boosting readings an average of 10 to 15 degrees in its path, was expected to reach into the East today, although it may arrive too late to prevent damage to Northern Florida's citrus and vegetable crops.

OVERNIGHT READINGS again plunged to near or below zero in the Great Lakes region and the Northeast, with below freezing weather ranging southward through the Ohio Valley into the Gulf Coast states.

Atlanta, Ga., had an early morning reading of 25 degrees while Kansas City in the warmer belt recorded a 27-degree temperature at the same time.

THE INTENSE COLD in the Southland reached into Northern Florida for the second night, threatening to frost crops in the area.

Snow flurries swirled across the Great Lakes region during the night and into parts of the Ohio Valley and New England, with the heaviest snow falling in Western New York.

The Weather Bureau at Buffalo, N.Y., warned of a five-to-10-inch snow accumulation in the area with poor visibility due to blowing and drifting snow. Speed limits were cut from 60 to 35 miles an hour on the New York thruway south of Buffalo to the Pennsylvania border and in the Niagara and Tonawanda sections.

Scattered flurries swept the Great Lakes. An accumulation of two inches was expected today at Detroit.

'Long-Arm' Thief Nets $2,424

Palm Springs police are today hunting for the long-armed burglar who snatched $2,424 in cash and checks from a Tennis Club money chute early Sunday morning.

Detective L. Robert White said the thief netted $1,040 in cash and $1,384 in signed checks, all contained in a bank bag.

WHITE SAID THE bag was taken from a box in the club auditor's office. The bag was deposited in the box via a chute leading from a slot in the office wall.

The burglar apparently snapped the hasp and lock which secured an outer door to the money chute, reached in and snatched out the bag, White said.

Control of Highway Signs Sought By County Planner

PALM DESERT — A concerted plan to bring about control of billboards in Riverside County—with particular emphasis on the Highway strip between Whitewater and Indio—must be evolved with utmost speed, Riverside County Planning Director Tyler Suess told Realtors here.

Suess spoke at a breakfast meeting of the Palm Desert Real Estate Board held in Shadow Mountain Club recently.

"THERE ARE 1,400 signs on Highway between Whitewater and Indio," Suess told the Realtors. "We need signs, of course, but there must be some control, some policy governing them."

He indicated that he felt real estate would suffer if a plan to cope with the mounting number of billboards was not forthcoming.

Suess, who has seen 16 supervisors come and go during his 10 year tenure in the Riverside County Regional Planning Commission, said that joint state-county release scheduled for early in 1959 will give Riverside County citizens a clear-cut picture of projected planning for the next 22 years. The projection will detail freeways, highways and roads for the two decade span, he said.

Palm Desert's Realtors will not meet again until Jan. 7, it was announced at the meeting, although the group's Christmas Party is slated for Thursday night at the Shadow Mountain Club.

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, scheduled for Thursday, has been cancelled because of the Christmas season.

The board, which meets regularly on the third Thursday of each month, will meet on Jan. 15 unless otherwise scheduled.

Announcement of the contribution was made yesterday by Court Hadden, chairman of the Chamber committee handling the competition.

Hadden also added that private residences who wish to do so may contribute to the street lighting fund.

The contest will be conducted on the night of Dec. 18, with announcement of the winners in all categories to be made on Dec. 20.

A-Day Campaign

PD Chamber Readies Drive on New Members

PALM DESERT — A tee-off drive for new Chamber of Commerce members is slated for this desert area Wednesday.

Ralph Hale and Dick Coffin, membership chairmen, announced today that the day-long campaign is designed to round up old members and enlist a body of new ones by personal solicitation of business and professional firms throughout Country Club Valley.

A GIANT ORGANIZATION consisting of two teams — totaling 32 persons — is backing the drive. One is headed by Jimmy Hines of Eldorado and the other by John Noyes of Desert Air Hotel. Hines and Noyes, as designated "captains," are appointing six co-captains, who will allocate 24 team members to act as salesmen throughout the valley during the intensive day-long drive. A personal door-to-door canvas of homes, offices and places of business will also be conducted.

Ukraine Village Gets New Sign To Aid Visitors

SKY VALLEY—A new sign has been placed on Ukraine Street here to aid visitors in locating the Ukrainian Village that is to be located there.

The five-acre tract, purchased in 1948 by Mr. and Mrs. Mike Markiw of Los Angeles, will be established as a village for persons of Ukrainian descent.

An effort is now under way to provide electricity for the area. Experiments indicate that the moon may be useful as a reflector for intercontinental telephone messages.

Board Meeting Canceled at DHS

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, scheduled for Thursday, has been cancelled because of the Christmas season.

The board, which meets regularly on the third Thursday of each month, will meet on Jan. 15 unless otherwise scheduled.

TEAM CAPTAINS will compete for a perpetual trophy, which will be awarded to the team obtaining the greatest number of membership pledges during the one-day round-up. Individual prizes will be given to those salesmen obtaining the largest number of dollars pledged and the maximum of new memberships.

A cocktail party to climax the drive will be held at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, at Shadow Mountain Club with a 7 p.m. deadline imposed for all team members to apply for the prizes. Also scheduled is a tee-off breakfast at Desert Air Hotel at 8 a.m.

YOUTH CAPTURED; ADMITS KILLING 5

EL CAJON, Calif. — (UP) — A lanky 16-year-old runaway youth tearfully admitted Monday night that he killed the wife and four children of his benefactor because one of the children "wouldn't stop screaming." The youth was captured by an off-duty policeman.

"I guess I just flipped my lid," 6-foot, 4-inch Carl Eder told police.

"I pray that God will take mercy on him," grieving Thomas Pendergast, 39, husband and father of the victims said.

"WHY DID YOU do it? Why? Why?" Pendergast asked Eder when he confronted Eder, a runaway from Irondequoit, N.Y., at the police station.

Eder was captured Monday night after a civil engineer told an off-duty police officer of seeing him in San Diego, about 12 miles from the scene of the killings. The officer arrested the youth who surrendered peacefully.

"I did it because Diane (4 years old, one of the slain children) was screaming. She wouldn't stop screaming. That started the whole thing," he said.

PENDERGAST, an aircraft plant worker and a deeply religious man who had taken Eder into his home six weeks ago to "help save the boy's soul," found his wife, Lois, 37, fatally shot in their home here Friday.

In various rooms throughout the house and adjoining garage, Pendergast found his four children, Allen, 2; Diane, 4; Thomas Jr., 6, and David, 9, all with their throats slashed.

The two oldest boys also were dismembered.

"I'm glad I'm captured," Eder said. "I am happy to get somewhere where it's warm and to get food."

The youth, who was booked on suspicion of murder and jailed after questioning by police, said he had been living for the past three days in a deserted ballroom in the San Diego Mission Beach area.

Officials Launch Arson Inquiry In Cabazon Fire

CABAZON — California Division of Forestry officials today are investigating the possibility of arson in the fire which gutted the plush Club Cabazon here early Sunday morning.

The fire, which broke out shortly after 5 a. m., Sunday, ripped through the interior of the concrete-block-steel structure, doing damage estimated at $599,400 by Ben Greenblatt, owner of the club.

Greenblatt was asleep in his Palm Springs hotel when the fire broke out and was called to the scene by Richard Brisbane, manager of the club. Greenblatt and his wife had utilized living quarters at the rear of the club until a week ago when they moved into Palm Springs quarters.

California Division of Forestry Investigator Norman Harris said that he would make a "thorough" evaluation of physical evidence at the scene of the fire. He said he would work with investigators from the National Board of Fire Underwriters and representatives of the Cabazon Police Department.

Watchdog

PITTSFIELD, Vt. — (UP) — A sleeping dog proved more dangerous than a barking one to Gardner Baker, 48. Aroused early one morning by a disturbance behind his farmhouse, Baker took a .22 caliber pistol to investigate. He tripped over his sleeping dog and the weapon discharged, sending a shell through the farmer's right thigh. He never did discover the cause of the noise.

Gigantic Brush Fire Continues Out of Control

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, Calif. (UP) — A gigantic brush fire that has blackened nearly 40,000 acres and destroyed 17 homes raged out of control today toward a populated area.

About 1,100 firefighters manned lines around the 90-mile perimeter of the blaze. Officials reported the blaze has been about 50 per cent contained but said it was burning out of control along the north and headed toward an area known as Trabuco Canyon.

ELMER OSTERMAN, fire coordinator for the State Division of Forestry said the blaze at its closest point was about a mile and a half from homes in the canyon but that they were in no immediate danger.

Firemen said depending on weather conditions complete control could not be expected before late today.

THE HUGE BLAZE, the second large brush fire in Southern California in two weeks, broke out Sunday and, pushed along by 4-mile-an-hour winds, spread quickly through the tinder-dry canyons and mountains in Cleveland National Forest.

Walls of flame 40 and 50 feet high cut a swath through the brush and small tree-covered canyons and steep mountain-sides to San Juan Hot Springs about 10 miles north of this historic mission town and destroyed 17 summer cabins.

All residents in the burned area had been evacuated and no injuries have been reported.

Purchase of Club Tampico Told by Los Angeles Men

CATHEDRAL CITY—Two Beverly Hills businessmen — one a theatrical agent, the other an accountant — have purchased the Club Tampico here, it was learned yesterday.

Daniel T. Lastfogel, who operates his own theatrical and management agency, and Leonard Landis, who owns his own accounting business, acknowledged yesterday that they have purchased the Tampico from Don Castle and Howard Pine.

LASTFOGEL, who maintains offices at 250 South La Cienega Boulevard, Beverly Hills, declined to discuss the terms of the transaction but said that policies of the club would be upgraded immediately.

He said the club would open Friday under its new ownership and that it would feature a trio, a singer and a comic. He did not indicate who the artists will be but said that he has "signed Hollywood comic Don Rickles and the very-funny Eddie Foy, Jr., for future engagements at the Tampico."

"I understand that the food has been a strong point of the club," he said. "I wouldn't want to change that."

Watchdog

PITTSFIELD, Vt. — (UP) — A sleeping dog proved more dangerous than a barking one to Gardner Baker, 48. Aroused early one morning by a disturbance behind his farmhouse, Baker took a .22 caliber pistol to investigate. He tripped over his sleeping dog and the weapon discharged, sending a shell through the farmer's right thigh. He never did discover the cause of the noise.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

Annual Desert Art Festival Desirous As Major Attraction

For many years the local desert area has been a favorite locale for sojourning residence and painting by artists from all parts of the world.

It is now evident that the Palm Springs region is in the stages of transformation from a popular Art Colony into one of the principal Art Centers of the western United States.

Growing public appreciation and enthusiasm for original paintings of desert subjects and the incomparably scenic landscapes is shown in the greater numbers visiting local galleries and studios, and the steadily rising volume of purchases by viewers.

Much as Laguna and Carmel have become known as productive art centers for seascapes, Palm Springs is fast attaining a reputation as the outstanding locality for premier selections in desert landscapes.

With hundreds of amateur and scores of professional artists at their canvasses here almost every day, and the legion of viewers from every section of the country increasing by the thousands with each passing season, art is fast developing into primary desert vocation, industry and compelling attraction.

Which is most fortunate and valuable for the entire Palm Springs desert sector. Besides the pleasingly inspirational and local economic factors, creative and re-productive pictorial art in all its forms from camera to canvas, has the added feature of proclaiming the beauties and magnetic allure of our scenic desert paradise to all beholders in every home, office, public place in each city and hamlet, wherever displayed throughout the world. It is excelled by none other as a constant and impelling reminder of the rare and manifold natural beauty to be seen by every visitor to our desert.

It is gratifying to note that there are a number of public and individual showings in progress here throughout the year. But the rapid growth of the art colony with attendant increases in volume of patronage and appreciation suggests that the time has come to institute an annual community-wide Desert Art Show. Should such be done, there is no question that it would soon prove to be one of the largest and best of the regular yearly attractions, as has been the case in other celebrated Art Centers.

We recommend this suggestion to local art and civic leaders and their combined organization memberships. It has been suggested that such an Art Festival be held each year when the fabulously beautiful Smoke Trees are in bloom, both because they are native only to this area and also because at season's end the expected thousands of additional out-of-town visitors could be more readily accommodated.

With the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce, the City and all interested organizations and individuals, it is apparent that an Annual Desert Art Show could be quite readily arranged and established as one of the most popular and beneficial events looked forward to each year by thousands of persons from here and afar.

First Impressions

TEL-AVIV, ISRAEL — There is something to be said for first impressions. If a psychiatrist should tell me to blurt out what ever popped into my head after a day in Israel, it would be: "Theodore Roosevelt."

Old T. R. is the American exemplar of the strenuous life who found everything "Bully!" and who, when the spirit moved him over some vista of the Wild West or a glorious sunrise in New York or Washington, would throw back his head and bellow: "Hurrah for God!"

THIS IS TOO hoisterous to be a very good rendition of the serious spirit of the Israeli. But it will do for a starter. Enthusiasm is the keynote here. These people are zealous in religion, firebrands in patriotism, hungry hunters in pursuit of knowledge and eager beavers for hard work.

The most telling single statement about the two million Israeli is that virtually all of them in this arid, narrow, frontline country are here by personal choice and decision. Considering how many hundreds of millions of persons on the five continents and the hundreds of islands stay where their parents helped them, and grouse about it, you feel an electric contrast in these voluntary pioneers.

FROM THE UPPER floors of any Tel-Aviv building you can get a clear-day view of the enemy frontier in Jordan. Any highish artillery piece could lob a shell into the heart of Israel's capital city which has the dry, unfinished hustling look of a postwar boom town in the American Southwest. There is hardly a place name in this New Jersey-sized nation without its story of an Arab raid or a battle in what the people call the War of Liberation.

Today there is no civilized country without its special kind of stress and tension. To go further, I doubt if any historical age was as tranquil as we in our self-pity like to suppose. Coming here on the plane, I read a fragment of an autobiography by Edmund Wilson, the literary critic, who regarded his father's generation (1862-1923) as victims of a period in which they "were subjected to dizzying temptations, overpowering pressures, insidious diversions of purpose, and the casualties among them were terrible."

"OF MY FATHER'S close friends at college, but a single one was left by the time he was in his thirties. All the rest were dead — some had committed suicide." The elder Wilson worshipped Lincoln, who lived in the immediately preceding generation, as "a great lawyer who was deeply neurotic, who had to struggle through spells of depression."

My point is that no people or generation deserves any special credit for living under pressures (which are universal and timeless); the credit derives from how well and gallantly the troubles are borne. Well, perhaps the least remarkable thing about the Israeli is their military preparedness.

ALL MALES FROM 18 to 49 are in service, subject to instant call; and all girls of 18 are under a selective conscription which, in a much more literal sense than we knew in World War II, allows a female to "release a man for combat." Military readiness, whether done ill or well, is self-preservation, and not extraordinary, but a much more remarkable thing in the Israeli is the way in which they bet that their country, surrounded by blood enemies and beset with natural handicaps, is here to stay.

All immigrants are given free courses in Hebrew, which means that alien languages here are being phased out of existence. Premier Ben-Gurion has agreed to meet with any or all Arab representatives to discuss and subject — except one: the existence of Israel, that one being above question.

SELF-SUFFICIENCY, rather than expansion for living space, appears to be the policy in being, quite apart from what the national leaders say or do. A research group from the U. S. Department of Agriculture is here with the idea, seemingly justified, of learning things about the use of arid lands for forestation. A remarkable husband-wife team of scientists here, the Doctors Hugo and Elizabeth Boyko, have executed a fascinating flip-flop on the stubborn subject of desalting water for irrigation of dry lands.

THE DUNE AREAS of the world are about 3.2 billion acres or around one-third of the land area, and productivity would, of course, be multiplied if fresh water could be brought in. But the Boykos have up-ended the problem by experiments which prove that something like 200 species of plant will grow if properly treated with salt water. According to the Israeli government report:

"When Dr. Boyko poured the sea water into the plants directly from above . . . the water remaining at the root layers of the soil was not highly saline . . . and the salts . . . return to the sea through the flow of underground water."

ANOTHER EXPERIMENT of note is one by Dr. Y. Gindel who has a ten-year project coming to maturity in coffee-growing. If it works, as now seems believable, the latitudes for coffee production will be expanded and Israel's two million dollar import bill will be considerably cut. The process is one of gradual acclimatization and is said to be applicable to California weather.

Quotes from the News

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, on Soviet threats in the Berlin crisis:

"If the free nations stay united, if they stand with calm determination for what are their clear rights, if they scrupulously observe their own obligations and if they maintain adequate defensive and deterrent power, then hostile threats will be frustrated and peace will prevail."

HAVANA — Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.), who thinks rebel leader Fidel Castro is a "Bandit," on why the United States should ship arms to the Cuban government:

"If our allies are doing it, why shouldn't we? We are all in the same boat."

TORONTO — Norman Burgess 36, on his marriage to a widow who has eight children:

"It means nine people to love me when I come home at night."

Wonder if He Can Still Get the Parts

This Side of The Sun By Phat

Now to revive that Old suggestion. Another bridge to End congestion.

The way things are booming in the southern end of town—seems about time to renew that drive for a third crossing over Tahquitz creek.

ALMOST EVERY TIME I pick up The Desert Sun I note where some other new business is to be established in that area.

And all of the time they are building new homes, new apartments, new hotels, like crazy down that way.

On top of that, there's all of that lush district to the east, all along Highway 111 from the city limits of Palm Springs to beyond La Quinta.

Which is filling up faster than rapidly.

AND ALL THERE is linking the two parts of town is one bridge on Palm Canyon, or you can drive a mile east, go south on Sunrise Way and either cut back or head east.

So there's a mile of Tahquitz channel practically splitting the town.

Another bridge half way between Palm Canyon Drive and Sunrise Way would solve a lot of things.

IT WOULD be a big help to people living in that area, and there are a lot of them and more every day.

They wouldn't have to buck the business traffic on the Drive going and coming from their homes.

Palm Canyon Drive traffic below the Y where it siphons off both Indian Avenue and North Palm Canyon cars, is already a busy street.

WITH ALL of the new development, it is going to be busier. Now, another crossing over the channel would serve to relieve some of this load.

And make it easier for all concerned.

If some action isn't taken, it may soon become as tough to find a place to drive as it is to find a place to park.

HARKING BACK to another old topic, why not a traffic light at the Y where Palm Canyon Drive and Indian Avenue meet?

Recently a state highway official told me there's no light there because the Drive and the Avenue may be made one-way streets and when they are, a light wouldn't be needed as there would be no cross traffic.

But I don't think that one-way street deal will jell and in the meantime the Y is getting more and more hazardous.

PALM SPRINGS is growing and fast. We still affectionately call it the Village but it is a city. What was fine ten years ago, isn't now.

The old catch-as-catch-can traffic days are gone.

Meaning that we not only need signal lights at the Y but at several other important intersections in town.

And when they get all of the new development completed down that way, they'll need lights there, too.

So all I want for Christmas is a third crossing over Tahquitz Creek and a few more signal lights.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

As I remember this suit, it was double-breasted with peak lapels. It had a magical, magnetic quality: It picked up lint and dust better than our carpet sweeper.

I think honestly when I walked in a room, you did not have to sweep that room for a couple of weeks. Everything loose in the room lifted itself automatically from the carpet. Drifted onto me like snow.

THAT OLD BLUE serge graduation suit of mine. Ah, memories.

Well, if you are watching the ads these days, you should know that dark blue graduation suits are all the rage for gentlemen.

Have not purchased one of these social items yet. But I have been looking at them in the windows. I always look in the windows. Being afraid to walk in the store.

"JUST SLIP THIS one on for size," the man says to you.

"I was just looking."

"Might as well see if we can fit you. No use looking if you can't fit you. Ha, ha."

They can fit you all right. Never worry about that. I have no sales resistance. That is why I stay outside the windows.

I must say those blue suits are mighty pretty.

IF I GOT INSIDE — I buy such things even after looking at myself in the mirrors. You know? Where they say, "Step up to the mirror."

You look at yourself in those three-way mirrors. And you think, "Heavenly days, do I look like that?" And your whole day is spoiled. In fact, you are in such a shock, they could sell you anything.

You get used to looking at yourself head-on while you are shaving. But those three-sided mirrors trim you down somewhat.

I SUPPOSE IT is different buying a dark blue suit today. When we bought our graduation suits, our mothers took us down to the store.

She said: "How about the matehal? This suit has to last three years."

Gad, but that was embarrassing! Positively confessing to poverty. If she had not told him the store man would think we popped in practically every week for a new suit. Threw the old one away.

"FIRST QUALITY serge, Madam," said the store man. "That suit should last him a lifetime."

(We made up our mind to get HIM someday.)

"It seems a little bit in the back," said our mother.

"It gives him room to grow into it, Madam."

All the time we stood there looking at ourself in the three-way mirror.

THE SUIT HAD a belt in the back. But the peaks of the lapels were not high enough. And there were about a hundred things different than the one Rudolph Valentino wore. Gosh!

"Do you like it?" That was a minor gesture to our opinion.

"It's OK, I guess."

If you told your family WHY the suit was wrong, you just got a lot of talk about "wanting to look like a tramp." What was the use?

ONCE YOU GOT the blue serge suit, you had to be careful of it. You wore it and wore it. To church. To parties. It was still being worn when graduation was long ago and far away.

The first time you snagged it—climbing a barb wire fence as I recall. The first snag, you would have thought you murdered somebody. Or something.

And the brushing!

"CANT YOU KEEP yourself tidy? I declare you must get down and roll on the floor. Give me that brush!"

I don't know where you would expect anyone to roll except on the floor. But that is the wrong answer. I was certainly glad when that suit wore out. It almost wore me out.

And now, here we go again. Back to the blue serge. It is full of memories and lint. But I expect we will have to grow into it.

EARL WILSON:

Ava Gardner Was a Doll

ROME — The hardy Americans huddle in their overcoats at the sidewalk tables on the Via Veneto at this Christmas season and talk enviously of those going home. Ava Gardner was flying back to N.Y., the Carolinas and Hollywood after stealing her own picture, "The Naked Maja," working long hours uncomplainingly and untemperamentally and being quite a doll about it. Her steady beau Walter Chiari — busy now with TV and a film — says when he finishes he'll join her about March on her next picture job — in Australia.

Sam Steinman, the Newark, N.J., newsman who named the busiest street "Veneto Beach," told of an Italian who said to a friend: "Francesco, you are so well dressed! Would you give me the address of your tailor?" Francesco replied: "Yes, on condition you don't give him mine."

The Americans are much in evidence. Handsome Lex Barker (of N.Y.C.), prospering in European films, told me he was rushing off to Switzerland ("That's where my girl is!"). Mario Lanza (of Philadelphia) is back in the big money, having signed for five albums, three films in Germany and is discussing an NBC TV spec to be filmed here — with Maria Callas. . . . Singer Bricktop (from the Carolinas) returns to N.Y. next month to "see Mitch" (Miller) about a record album. . . . Author Mike Stern was flying toward Syracuse to see his son and daughter, who are college students there.

Hollywood and Houston bachelor Bob Neal recently gave me his Miami address — and now I found him in Rome escorting Irma Aranga, niece of the Panamanian President, now studying in Italy.

Bob's constantly with his attractive young sister, "Puddin'," and her husband, Dr. William Dodge, a Mayo's brain surgeon now researching in Europe. The Dodges have five children, a 4-floor penthouse with five terraces, in the highest part of Rome — with a swimming pool on the roof. What living!

"Puddin'" told me I should "discover" the most beautiful girl living — Deborah Dixon of Houston, a Vassar girl now making her social debut in Houston: "She is a blonde Elizabeth Taylor," so she assured me.

The Rome wolves are now called "The Young Lions." . . . I met Author James Jones and B.W. at Jerry's Bar (run by Jerry Chierchio of Louisiana) and Jones was explaining to us and to George Seabury, the Pan-Am giant there, why he doesn't dance much. "It's the Italian orchestras," he said. "They can't seem to keep very good time with our dance steps."

The Midnight Earl in N.Y. . . . Yul Brynner sent for author Pete Viertel to "punch up" his role in "Solomon" (in which he replaced Tyrone Power). . . . Prince Rainier and Grace visited the crowded Harwyn Club, had to settle for a table on the dance floor. . . . The producers of the B'way-bound musical, "Whoop-Up," SOS'd its backers for more money. . . . Max Liebman will produce the "Close-Up" dinners, kidding TV personalities. First guest of honor: Milton Berle, March 7.

RCA-Victor OK'd Pat Suzuki's loanout to Columbia Records for the "Flower Drum Song" cast album. . . . Hefty Buddy Hackett says he may decide to do a western — Fat Masterson. . . . Cuba's tourist ads in '59 will accentuate the "Safe Cuba" angle. . . . "Music Man" is auditioning singers to be Robert Preston's understudy. . . . Columbia Pictures asks — and gets — $750,000 plus ten per cent of the picture when it loans Kim Novak to another company.

Wish I'd Said That: The first cow was brought to this country ten years before the Mayflower. But you never hear cows boast of their ancestors — Irma Washout of Roger Price says he's simplified getting Christmas gifts for friends by buying only two kinds — quarts and fifths. That's Earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Arrow in the Head

HOLLYWOOD — Frank Sinatra posed with one of those trick arrows through his head for a still publicizing his new picture, "Hole in the Head," and then indulged in the Good Neighbor Policy: he sent a bottle of Jack Daniel's apiece to his new dressing-room neighbors on the Goldwyn lot, John Wayne and Bill Holden, just back from locationing in Louisiana with "The Horse Soldiers."

I looked over Frankie's shoulder at the cards he addressed to Wayne and Holden: "Welcome back to civilization and have yourselves a snort of booze — there's a virus floating around!"

HOLDEN TOLD ME he'll hold onto the bottle because he may need it in Africa. He's taking off on safari Jan. 2 with millionaires Tex Feldman and Ray Ryan. And no future picture plans for Bill until he irons out his contract squabble with Paramount.

Ed Murrow was long-distancing Sam Goldwyn when I tracked the "Porgy and Bess" producer down in his studio sanatorium. Which means Sam will be purple-patching Person - to - Person any day now.

GOLDWYN FINISHES "P. and B." a $7,000,000 project partly because of that fire that stopped the picture before it started, this week. His next: "I'm working on an idea," he told me, "but I'm not talking about it because I talk so much it would be finished shooting before I finished talking about it, and I'm sure you want to go to lunch before 1960, right?" So we went to lunch.

Bee Dee Davis, Betty's 14-year-old daughter, hand-painted seven "Daddy Towels," one for each day in the week, for stepfather Gary Merrill's Christmas. They show Daddy drinking milk, Daddy drinking papaya juice and, as Gary gags, "Daddy just plain old-fashioned knock-down-drag-out DRINK IN!"

FOX STARLET Jill St. John flew to New York. Object: Approval of the young divorcee's marriage to young millionaire Lance Reventlow from his mother, Barbara Hutton. . . . Audie Murphy entered his five-year-old foreign-bred Predestinato in the Santa Anita Handicap.

The first movie to be co-produced by the Soviet filmmakers and a Free World producer will be "Operation Icebreaker." Deal was approved by Nikita Khrushchev himself. It rolls next June in Moscow's Mosfilm Studio. Part of it will be shot in the Kremlin. Producer is a 35-year-old Irishman, Desmond O'Donovan, brother of Kevin McClory, the late Mike Todd's production aide on "Around the World in 80 Days."

O'DONOVAN ARRIVES in Hollywood tomorrow (Dec. 17) to cast the picture. Oddly enough, Todd had tried to set up a similar deal with the Russians — and O'Donovan's headquarters are in London, in the same office at 144 Piccadilly where Todd had his British headquarters!

"Icebreaker," incidentally, is a "Bridge of San Luis Rey" type of yarn about a VIP-packed Polar flight that crashes on an Arctic icecap.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Art Linkletter, who owns a big piece of the patent, isn't happy about it, but the Hula Hoop fad is fading faster than Dianetics!

Betty Kean and Lew Parker killed two birds with one stone: opened their new comedy act at the Coconut Grove in support of Pat Wymore's new act (except that theirs is better than hers) and sold the script of a projected family-situation teleseries starring themselves, The Rickersons, to Screen Gems.

TOM BRENNAN Jr. hung a diamond on Betty Luzzi, Peter Potter's production aide at the Juke Box Jury show. They'll wed in the spring. . . . Groucho Marx: "I've put off reading 'Lolita' for six years, till she's 18."

Provocative Christmas package, postmarked Paris, for Patti Page: a dozen pairs of identical black shoes, all labelled "Seduc-ta" . . . Two network TV appearances sewed it up for the 14-year-old Towne Twins, Laura Lee and Dora Dee. Arwin Records has signed them to roll out four rocknrollers.

HOPE EMERSON, the six-foot-four Oscar nominee who started her career singing and playing piano in saloons, is back at the old stand in her role as "Mother," a regular in the Peter Gunn series: she'll do some bistro-bellin' on "Won't You Come Home, Bill Bailey?"

I can remember a time when they wouldn't give Hope dramatic parts because she was typed as a saloon singer. It has taken her eight years, since her Academy Award nomination for the cruel prison matron in "Caged," to get away from melodramatic type-casting and land a singing job!

CAROLE COSTELLO got some training on local televisions and now the 19-year-old will make her movie debut in "The Secret Bride of Candy Rock" at Columbia Pictures. It stars her dad, Lou Costello, minus his old partner, Bud Abbott.

Hello, All You Out There in Radio Land: A deejay survey in LA shows that The Big Boppers (Elvis Presley, Jonah Jones, Conway Twitty and the like) and The Crazy Combos (Kingston Trio, Everly Brothers, etc.) pushed such favorites from the year before as Eddie Fisher, Frankie Laine, Billy Eckstine, Johnnie Ray, Guy Mitchell, Dinah Shore, Kitty Kallen and Don Cornell into the background as far as record sales & spins were concerned in 1958.

Yuletide Library Reading Tips Given for Tots, Teens

By GERRY VANE
My holiday greeting for you may sound a bit familiar, but it's not exactly what Santa said on "The Night Before Christmas." I wish a Merry Christmas to all, and to all—Good Reading all the year long! And what better way to start than by getting to know Holly and Ivy?

THE STORY OF HOLLY AND IVY: Rumer Godden, drawings by Adrienne Adams.

Ivy was an orphan who wished she had a Grandmother. Holly was a Christmas doll who wished she had a little girl. Mrs. Jones wished for a little girl, and a very special doll to give her for Christmas.

While Ivy was wandering forlornly about in the snow on the Eve of Christmas, she spied Holly in a top shop window.

"My Christmas girl!" said Holly.

But the window was between them—the shop was locked—and, even if it hadn't been, Ivy had no money. However...

Tomorrow was Christmas Day. And, as you well know, in some magical, special way, Christmas wishing makes it so!

THE FAIRY DOLL: Rumer

Godden, drawings by Adrienne Adams.

As dainty as could be was the Fairy Doll perched atop the Christmas tree. But, Elizabeth, the youngest, wasn't dainty; in fact, she was clumsy, naughty, not very clever, and—always—too s—all!

Though her Mother, Father, Cristobel, and Godfrey tried to teach her how to ride her new bicycle, she couldn't stay on long enough to learn! And, when she dropped Grandmother's crystal basket of roses, even Josee (who was only two years older) thought she was a hopelessly helpless case. Only a Fairy Doll could help Elizabeth now, so down she came from the top of the tree in order to do just that! Elizabeth made a lovely home for the Fairy Doll, who, in turn, proceeded to make things lovely for Elizabeth.

THE GIFT: Helen Hull.

The villagers were very upset when the old woodcarver built his little shack against the great tree at the edge of the forest. And, though they couldn't help marveling at the beauty and delicacy of the tiny figures he carved for his Christmas creche, they still treated him as an unwelcome stranger in their midst.

When Jerome, the blacksmith's small son, stopped to look in awe upon the creche, he made a discovery and ran to tell the old woodcarver about it. Peter not only gave the boy a wonderful gift to hold in his hands, but he also opened his ears to the music of heaven and then told him that the Christ Child rests best in the manger of a loving heart.

A BIG TREASURE BOOK OF CHRISTMAS: Dorothy Commins, pictures by Dellwyn Cunningham.

This colorful book is as brimful of Christmas surprises as a bright, red stocking that has been hung by the chimney with care!

One selection, "Christmas in the Heart," tells—in poetic form—the same message that Peter revealed to Jerome in THE GIFT reviewed above:

"It is Christmas in the mansion, Yule-log fires and silken frocks; It is Christmas in the cottage, Mother's filling little socks. It is Christmas on the highway, In the thronging, busy mart; But the dearest, truest Christmas In the Christmas in the heart."

PALM DESERT—Helena Peck Wise, at 80 one of the Southwest's most prolific artists, will have her latest effort used as theme for Christmas at the Shadow Mountain Club here.

The theme is Mrs. Wise's newest song, "Christmas in the Desert," and its motif has been carried out throughout the club by Mrs. Juanita Bosworth of the Palm Desert Woman's Club.

The song was given a premiere performance at the "Gay Nineties" Ball, culminating event on the four-day program of the observance. Earlier in the day, she rode her 1931 Ford roadster in the "Gay Nineties" parade.

District Meeting Here Next Month

A day-long program has been announced for the January meeting of the De Anza District of the California Federation of Womens' Clubs which is to be held in Palm Springs on January 9. The entire program will honor Mrs. A. F. Benton of Merced, state president of the Federation.

Morning session of the meeting will be held at the Desert Inn and will include business session, a panel discussion, and report on Federation contests.

Mrs. Berg Is Hostess at Big Affair

Red-berried holly, fresh camellias and miniature red Christmas trees decorated the dinner tables for the smart holiday party given by Mrs. A. C. Berg. Around 100 guests gathered at the Tennis Club Saturday evening for the affair which was a welcome home for the Herbert Carpenters, recently returned to Palm Springs from their New Hampshire home at Franconia.

Cocktails and hot and cold canapés were served in the Venetian Room, preceding the dinner, which took over the main floor of the Bougainvillea Room. Special guests included Mrs. Berg's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Scully, and a niece, Mrs. Walter Loupe, and her husband. Among other guests were: Mrs. Austin McManus, the Frank Bogerts, Jack Kenastons, Earl Hendersons, Mary Hurrell, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Backstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robbin, the Harold Murphys, Collis Steeres, Erwin Eisenbergs, Ed Hunts, Co Thornstons, Ray Lusby, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Copass, the Bruce Burritts, Madeyn Pio Rito was escorted by Norman Olson, and B. J. Sanchez by Pierre Bouscareau. Among others were: Bob Simons, Charles Doyle, Ed McCoubrey, Bill Arnold, Allen MacLaine, Dr. Jack Nevins. There was also a party of friends from Long Beach, including the Douglas Grahams, John Vales, Syros Douglas and Mrs. Helen Woods.

Hampshire since early summer. Looking on are Thomas Foster and Mrs. A. C. Berg, who was the hostess for the brilliant affair. Over 100 were in attendance. (Victor Culina Photo)

Trio of Hostesses Gives Shower Tea

WARMLY WELCOMED into the circle of friends and daughter, are Mrs. Frank Sorenson, Mrs. Jack Copass and Mrs. William Ford, who hosted the shower. (Desert Sun Photo)

Mrs. Lusby Honored at Shower

Pink and white flowers clustered on a silvered cone shape, decorated the dining table spread with point venise lace, for the tea which a trio of hostesses gave as a gift shower for Mrs. Ray Lusby and the Lusby's newly-adopted baby daughter Allison Marie. The hostesses were Mmes. Jack Copass, Franklin Sorenson and William Ford and the delightful affair was given at the Copass residence at 1554 South Calle Marcus on Friday afternoon.

Storks stood on each side of the centerpiece and lighted pink tapers in silver candelabra, and flowers in a ceramic cradle also adorned the table. The cake, decorated with storks, baby booties, parasols with roses, was cut and served with coffee and tea, mints and nuts. Mrs. Genevieve Berg and Mrs. Harry Grimm poured and Mrs. James Scott assisted the hostesses and had charge of the guest book. Many lovely gifts were brought in in a pink cradle.

Birthday Dinner For Tom Holland

There are two days starred on the December calendar for Tom Holland. In addition to Christmas, December 14 is his birthday.

The occasion was celebrated at a Sunday night dinner at the Tennis Club. Meeting for cocktails in the Venetian Room, followed by dinner in the Bougainvillea Room were the Hollands, Frank Camps, Milton Friedlys, Roy Colegates, Murray Barricks, Ernest Alschulers, and Rev. and Mrs. William Blondon.

Birthday, Christmas Celebrated

Saturday afternoon saw the beautiful home of the Glenn Watsons on Via Livorno again opened to the members of the Palm Springs Garden Club for their annual Christmas and Birthday Party.

For several years Tom Holland has been the honored guest at the Garden Club's Christmas meeting since his birthday falls during the holidays, and this year was no exception. There were birthday songs, a gift from the club and the many good wishes of his old friends for Tom.

The Watsons' home was decorated with Christmas greens and a tree around which the members gathered and exchanged gifts.

Rev. William Blondon inspired his listeners with the real spirit of Christmas with his talk on the true meaning of the coming of Christ. Rev. Blondon's presence and his message added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

It was announced that the Palm Springs Garden Book which is published by the Club and is a treasure house of information on desert planting is now on sale at banks, book stores, food markets and upon inquiry with public spirited groups throughout the city. Since this garden guide is the result of Garden Club members actual experiences with desert planting it is a dependable help for all desert gardeners and is a welcome item for Christmas giving.

Guests of the Club were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Alschuler, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. McDavid and Mr. and Mrs. C. Mason Spencer. Mrs. Foster Simonsen, Mrs. Daniel McCauley and Miss Hazel

Gross were assistant hostesses. George Manington was the Santa Claus and Mrs. Paul Leathers his helper.

Holiday Concert To Be Heard in San Bernardino

A special Christmas program will be presented by the Feld String Quartet, University of Redlands quartet - in residence, at San Bernardino Valley College auditorium, Sunday, December 28, at 3 p.m.

Two works will be offered in this presentation of Accent on Music: Haydn's complete "The Seven Last Words of Christ" and Brahms' Piano Quintet in F Minor, the latter having the noted pianist, Herbert Horn, as co-artist.

The four refugees - Otto Feld, Peter Halmi, Georg Szende and Wladyslaw Przybla - have just completed their first recording for Capitol in Hollywood. They will also make their San Francisco debut this month a concert arranged by their benefactor, Harold Zellerbach.

Tickets for the San Bernardino date may be obtained by writing Mrs. Theodore M. Cohen, Accent on Music treasurer, 657 W. 34th Street, San Bernardino. Proceeds will be used for arranging transportation to New York City, so the Feld Quartet will be able to make an appearance there in January.

Accent on Music, headed by Russell Baldwin, is an organization devoted to presenting "the unusual" in music.

Cognac was the word and the taste on everyone's lips ... as many well-known figures gathered at the Racquet Club ... opening the holiday season with a gala Cognac tasting ... held under the sponsorship of M. Romain Gary, Consul General de France ... The after dinner affair was held in the Mural Room ... where tables were set with bottles of France's finest brandies ... with some having difficulty telling the difference between the Three Star and the Cordon Bleu ... and many trying out the unusual "Honey Do" drink ... that is cognac and honey poured over shaved ice in a champagne glass ...

Among the 200 persons ... who drifted in and out ... and migrated back to their dinner tables or to the cocktail lounge ... were lovely Anna Maria Alberghetti (no, dear sponsors, they were NOT tasting), Greg Bautzer, Ed Gardiner (of "Duffy's Tavern"), Harry Brand of 20th Century Fox ... Mrs. William Perleberg and her sister Mrs. Joe Hall were there, and Mrs. William Powell, Marge and Jack Lambert ...

Incidentally I hear that Gwen and John Costello didn't make it to the Berg party ... because he was out all night the night before ... rounding up cattle that had strayed away from their Clancy Lane ranch ...

Lunching at the Racquet Club ... I was startled to see Gladys with a piece of adhesive tape across her nose and traces of a black eye ... She had the virus (this is NOT a home grown product) and dizziness caused a fall and a badly cut nose ... which required seven stitches ... Luckily there will be no scar ...

Natalie Wood and Bob Wagner (that popular young husband and wife who are hoping to do a picture together) weekendend at the Club ... and dropped into Gladys' shop to select matching red, white and black outfits ... to wear on their new boat which is tied up at Newport ...

The Charles Munns (he's the Tote Board King) ... of Palm Beach (Florida), spent four days at the Club ... and she sent gifts from Gladys' to her friend the Duchess of Windsor ...

Takes Part in Science Day at Pomona College

CLAREMONT. — Alice Ann Webb of Palm Springs, a sophomore at Pomona College, was a student demonstrator at the college's annual Science Day program when more than 430 students and 75 teachers from about 50 high schools and junior colleges in Southern California visited the campus.

The day was marked by dedication of two new Pomona College science buildings, the Robert A. Millikan Laboratory for physics, mathematics and astronomy, and the Seaver Laboratory for biology and geology. Millikan Laboratory is completed and in use while Seaver Laboratory is under construction and scheduled for occupancy next year. The twin buildings, providing facilities believed to be the most modern in the nation for undergraduate science instruction, represents a total investment of $3,250,000.

Main dedication event was an address on "Science for the Individual and the State" by Dr. Detlev W. Bronk, president of the National Academy of Sciences and of the Rockefeller Institute.

Pomona's science program in astronomy, botany, chemistry, geology, physics, psychology and zoology was unveiled during the day in demonstrations, lectures and exhibits for the visitors.

Miss Webb was a guide and demonstrator for the botany department. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Webb, 8 Warm Sands Place, Palm Springs. A 1957 graduate of Palm Valley High School, she is majoring in botany at Pomona.

CATHEDRAL CITY — A permit to build a 12-unit apartment building at 37-219 and 37-251 Bankside Drive here has been issued to Robert L. Lippert, it was announced this week. The $69,855 apartment—to be built in two sections—shoved Cathedral City permit valuations to $100,704.

Other permits included: Western Desert Inc., 67-209 Mission Drive, fence, $380. Sun Spa Development, 34-181 and 34-365 Lawrence, two dwellings, one at $10,278, the other $11,426.

Honest Accounting

GADSDEN, Ala. — (UPI) — F. F. Osborn, a candidate for the Alabama legislature in 1910, listed his campaign expenses as $20 to get his name on the ticket, $5 for a newspaper advertisement, $2 for other advertising and "15 cents for soda water for Phelin neighbors."

HUMPHREY BOGART, Audrey Hepburn and William Holden co-star in Billy Wilder's hilarious Paramount comedy delight, "Sabrina," which opens tonight at the Village Theater. Bogie and Bill portray the roles of immensely wealthy brothers, both in love with Audrey, the chauffeur's daughter. The devious schemes to win Audrey's lovely hand makes for gay, light-hearted, frothy film entertainment.

Record in Home Selling Claimed By Alexander

A new record in desert development selling was claimed here today by the George Alexander Construction Co. with 11 of their Racquet Club Road Estates sold in a single day.

Robert Alexander, vice president in charge of sales, said that the record day—Nov. 15—occurred at the close of a week that saw a total of 20 of the ultra-modern homes sold. Total sales in the new development now total 40 since the project was opened for purchase less than a month ago, he said.

Racquet Club Road Estates are within strolling distance of the Charles Farrell club and are located in Chino Canyon in such a way as to command an awe-inspiring view of Mt. San Jacinto, Alexander said.

The houses were designed by architects Palmer and Krieger, have 100 foot frontage and include air conditioning, built-in kitchens and custom-woven, wall-to-wall carpeting.

The per capita Federal income tax burden ranges from a high of $992 a year in Delaware to a low of $137 in Mississippi. Connecticut is second highest with $735, according to the Tax Foundation, while the figures for other states include $651 in New York, $360 in Texas and $203 in Arkansas.

Dear Abby...

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Please print this in defense of married women on the Postman's Route. After I moved into a new neighborhood, the Postman kept asking me for a drink of water (you'd give a dog a drink of water) and also for the use of my telephone. Then I found out he only lived around the corner from me. There are two sides to every story.

MARRIED WOMAN.

DEAR ABBY: It was nice of you to stick up for the women, but I was a postman, and believe me, there were plenty of married women on my route who were never too busy or too tired in the morning to invite me in.

"RANG TWICE."

DEAR ABBY: A certain boy at school kept pestering me for a date so I went out with him just to get rid of him. He has a reputation for being fast and he sure lived up to it. I let him know he couldn't get a thing off me, but according to the stories going around school, my name is mud. What can a girl do about a boy who makes up dirty lies about her? I want to clear my name.

DEAR MUD: You can avoid this boy (and his kind) like small pox, and charge it off to experience.

DEAR ABBY: That "Postman" who wrote that all the women on his route were after him sounded as phony as a three-dollar bill.

"POSTMAN" is the traditional Canadian-British designation. In AMERICA we call them "CARRIERS" or "MAILMEN," and it's a long time since the Redcoats left Pennsylvania. Another thing, Abby: The Postal Department has regulations for the behavior of their employees and if anyone pulled any tricks resembling what POSTMAN claims, he'd be out before he could say "Civil Service." It used to be the "Milkman" and the "Ice-man"—now it's the POSTMAN. I've toted a mailbox for 30 years and I can say that our housewives are a clean and moral lot.

TABELLARIUS

DEAR ABBY: My problem is not another woman, but a pipe! My boyfriend is forever sucking that bloomin' pipe of his and it is driving me out of my mind. The noise it makes clicking against his teeth goes through me like a knife. He is either busy knocking the old tobacco out, or packing the new tobacco in or looking for matches. The aroma (once he gets it going) smells like a rubber boot burning. Am I extra fussy or do you think I have a real problem here?

ANNNOYED
DEAR ANNOYED: A young man could have worse habits. If you have designs on this man—don't complain, or your dreams could go up in smoke.

'Desert' Adopted By CVJC Trustees

Members of the Coachella Valley Junior College District Board of Trustees have adopted "College of the Desert" as the name for their desert area junior college.

District Administrative Assistant Gail Brumwell said the board voted unanimously to permanently adopt the name submitted by a 16-year-old Palm Springs student.

THE NAME WAS entered in an area-wide contest to christen the college by Douglas Ferguson Crocker, of 147 South Tahquitz Drive, a high school junior at Palm Valley School.

The contest was co-sponsored by The Desert Sun and the Indio News and Date Palm.

Services Held Sunday for Robert Palmer

Funeral services were conducted Sunday for Robert W. Palmer, former Palm Springs resident, who died Friday in White Memorial Hospital in Los Angeles.

Palmer, 66, had been a resident at Smoke Tree Ranch for many years. He was residing at the Huntington Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena at the time he was stricken.

A memorial service for him will be conducted at 10 a.m., Thursday, at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church here. Rev. W. A. Blondon will officiate.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marjorie McKenzie; a son, Joseph Palmer II; two sisters, Miss Mildred Palmer and Mrs. Elizabeth S. Johnson; a brother, Richard S. Palmer, and four grandchildren.

Services were conducted at 3 p.m., Sunday, in the chapel of Turner, Stevens and Gurner at Alhambra.

Forest Warning

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — (UPI) — Unless U. S. forest lands are better managed in the future than they are now, this country may have trouble meeting its timber needs, says a Purdue University forester.

Mink Coats for Poodles Feature at Furs by Courtney

If you're having trouble picturing either scene, drop down to Winsome Courtney's "Furs by Courtney" salon and take a peek in the window.

You'll find three stuffed poodles dolled up in the latest

CHP Official Appeals for Holiday Caution

Capt. L. W. Watson, head of the California Highway Patrol's area office in Indio, today issued an appeal to all motorists in the area to use extra care and caution while driving during the coming holiday season.

"The tragedy of a fatal traffic accident, great as it is throughout the year, is magnified when it occurs during the Christmas season," Capt. Watson declared. "Any traffic law enforcement officer who has ever been called upon to perform that most difficult of all duties — to inform a person that a loved one has been killed — knows what this tragedy means. But he doesn't know it nearly as well as the victim's loved ones."

The highway patrol official said he has completed plans for a maximum enforcement program during the holidays. Particular attention, he said, will be given by his officers to the more hazardous, accident-causing violations.

"Excessive speed and right-of-way violations are two of the most frequent causes of traffic accidents. We will be especially alert for these infractions. We will also be attentive to those drivers who have been drinking because we want to get them off the highways before they get themselves and others into serious trouble," Capt. Watson declared.

Strebe Serves At Cuban Base

Warren F. Strebe, Jr., air controlman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren F. Strebe of 1042 Tachevah Drive, is serving at the Naval Air Station, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, one of the Navy's largest installations in the Caribbean.

THE DEDICATION of the Church of the Most Sacred Heart at Palm Desert Sunday will be followed by a dinner at 5:30 p. m. at the Shadow Mountain Club. Finishing plans for the dinner are, left to right, Michael Buccino, Mrs. Richard Clevering and Carroll LaJaunie. Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from Buccino at FI 6-6091. (Desert Sun Photo)

Huskies Role of PCC Favorites is Threatened by 5

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — The Pacific Coast Conference basketball race may well turn out to be a fine example of "togetherness" in the 45-year-old loop's year of disintegration.

The pre-season consensus had Washington running away with the title in a blaze of glory, leaving only the pickings for the other eight schools. But the Huskies dropped a pair to lightly-regarded Colorado, then stumbled to victory over Hawaii and Houston, a pair of clubs not generally recognized as powerhouses in the basketball world.

Although Washington may still be the favorite, there remain at least five darkhorses, foremost among the latter being defending champion California and a surprisingly strong Southern California five.

Some Dodgers to Get Bad News

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — E. J. (Buzzie) Bavasi, general manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers, says no Dodger contracts will be mailed out until after Christmas.

"If I did, I'd spoil the Yuletide for a few guys," Bavasi said. "There'll be good news for some players in the matter of pay raises, but there'll also be some cuts."

Name Hickey Head Coach Of S.F. 49ers

Former Arkansas Grid Star Takes Place of Albert

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Howard (Red) Hickey, assistant coach of the San Francisco Forty Niners, was named head coach of the pro football club today to succeed Frankie Albert who resigned last week.

The appointment of the onetime University of Arkansas star was announced by Forty Niner President Victor P. Morabito.

Hickey, assistant coach in charge of offense, has been with the Forty Niners since 1955. Before that he was with the Los Angeles Rams since 1941 as a player at end and coach except for four years of war duty.

HICKEY HAD BEEN most frequently mentioned as the likely successor to Albert after the former Stanford star announced Friday he was quitting as head coach because of the pressure on his family. The Forty Niners ended the season with a 6-6 record.

The new Forty Niners coach is known as a hard-driving leader who demands all - performances from his players.

Hickey had a choice of going into pro football or pro baseball when he was graduated from Arkansas after serving as captain of the Razorbacks in his senior year and playing in the Shrine East-West game. He also starred in baseball and basketball. An injury that hampered his throwing influenced him to pick football for a career.

HE WAS DRAFTED by the Pittsburgh Steelers but played only one game, against Cleveland. The Cleveland franchise later was shifted to Los Angeles and the Rams bought him.

"I was supposed to be a pass catching end but the Steelers didn't have anybody who could throw the ball," Hickey remarked recently.

"After the Ram game, the Pittsburgh coach came to me and said: 'I've got good news for you, Red, Cleveland wants you.' I was tickled to death because Cleveland had a fine passer in Parker Hall. The other end nearly cried and I packed my bags in a hurry."

He served in the Navy during the war, playing service football before he was assigned as gunnery officer on a merchant ship. He was discharged a lieutenant (jg).

Hickey played on the world championship Ram team in 1945. While assistant coach at Los Angeles, the Rams won four division titles and the world championship in 1951.

Turley, Ford Top Hurlers In American

Ford's 2.01 ERA Best by Far, Turley Leads with 21-7

CHICAGO (UPI) — Casey Stengel said all year long that Whitey Ford and Bob Turley were the two best pitchers in the circuit, and the American League made it official today.

Ford, the canny, left-handed curve-baller of the Yankees' pitching staff, turned in a 2.01 earned run average that was certified as best in the league, while the right-handed Turley compiled the loop's highest percentage, .750, by winning 21 games and losing only seven.

Sidelined with a sore elbow for part of the season, the 31-year-old Ford still managed to fashion a 14-7 record and lead the league with seven shutouts. His .667 won-lost percentage was second only to Turley's.

No one could touch Ford in the E.R.A. department. Southpaw Billy Pierce of the White Sox (17-11) was second with 2.68; lefthander Jack Harshman of the Orioles (12-15) third with 2.90; righthander Frank Lary of the Tigers (16-15) fourth with 2.91, and southpaw Billy O'Dell of the Orioles (14-11) fifth with 2.97.

Turley, who went on to win two World Series games against Milwaukee, was sixth in earned runs with 2.98 and his six shutouts placed him right behind Ford in that category. Bullet Bob was the league's only 20-game winner and he wound up in a tie with Pierce and Lary for the most complete games. Each pitched 19.

Buchholz, Mulloy Head U.S. Tennis Rankings Today

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Earl Buchholz of St. Louis, Mo., topped the 1958 junior rankings and Gardner Mulloy of Corals Gables, Fla., was placed first in the senior rankings announced today by the United States Lawn Tennis Association.

Buchholz, regarded as one of the nation's most promising court stars, currently is with the U.S. Davis Cup team in Australia. Although only 18, the St. Louis youth has looked impressive in several tournaments "down under."

Hickey played on the world championship Ram team in 1945. While assistant coach at Los Angeles, the Rams won four division titles and the world championship in 1951.

Red Sox, Orioles In Player Trade

BOSTON — (UPI) — The Boston Red Sox, long known as one of the most reluctant traders of the American League, completed their third trade in less than two weeks when they dealt spare shortstop Billy Klaus to the Baltimore Orioles in return for outfielder Jim Busby Monday night.

Trojans, Bruins Tops Says Hawaii Coach

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Based on the way USC and UCLA handled their Big Eight opponents over the week end, either of the local teams could beat top-rated Washington State.

That at least is the opinion of Hagaiian basketball coach Al Soake, whose team meets the Trojans tonight and Wednesday night.

Former Champs in Germany to Retire

HAMBURG, Germany — (UPI) — Willie Hoepner and Gernard Hecht, two former German light heavyweight champions, have announced their retirement from the ring. Hoepner, 33, lost the European title to Erich Schoepner three days ago. Hecht, 35, was European champion twice.

Andrews Wins at Thunderbird

Gene Andrews of California Country Club, shot a 69 on the final 18 Sunday to win the Thunderbird Country Club Invitational golf tournament with a 54-hole card of 210, one up on Phil Rodgers, La Jolla, former intercollegiate champion.

Jack Spindle of Riviera, was third with 216 and Johnny Dawson of Thunderbird and Eldorado Country Clubs, fourth with 217. Dawson won the Senior tournament which preceded the invitational, last Thursday.

S.F. Poloists Win Season's Opener

San Francisco Polo Club opened the local polo season with a 13-8 victory over Eldorado Polo Club on the losers' field Sunday before an enthusiastic gallery.

Bob Smith of the winners, who has a reputation of being the longest hitter in polo today, paced the San Franciscans with 6 of their 13 points. Lisle Nixon, Willis Allen and Ted Pierce joined Smith in fashioning the win.

The game was the first of a series of games which will be played every Sunday on the Eldorado fields.

Will Tevis said that his Eldorado team will meet the fast Red Diamond team of Pomona next Sunday at Eldorado. Play will start at 2 p.m.

Tickets are available at the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, Eldorado Country Club and also at the field on the day of the game.

Cincinnati Boosts UPI Cage Lead

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Oscar Robertson-led Cincinnati widened its lead over Kansas State today in the United Press International ratings as the college basketball powers began the flurry of pre-holiday activity that is bound to realign the top 10 teams.

Except possibly for 8th-ranked Xavier of Ohio and 10th-ranked Texas Christian, there's trouble ahead for the eight other teams in this week's top 10.

El Mirador Designs Own 49-Star Flag

New, Old Fly From Same Pole

Palm Springs citizens thought they were seeing double this morning.

El Mirador Hotel had two American flags flying from the same flag pole.

The desert spa's general manager, Dick Vander Veer, had a simple explanation as he and his wife, Harriet, raised the double order of Old Glory.

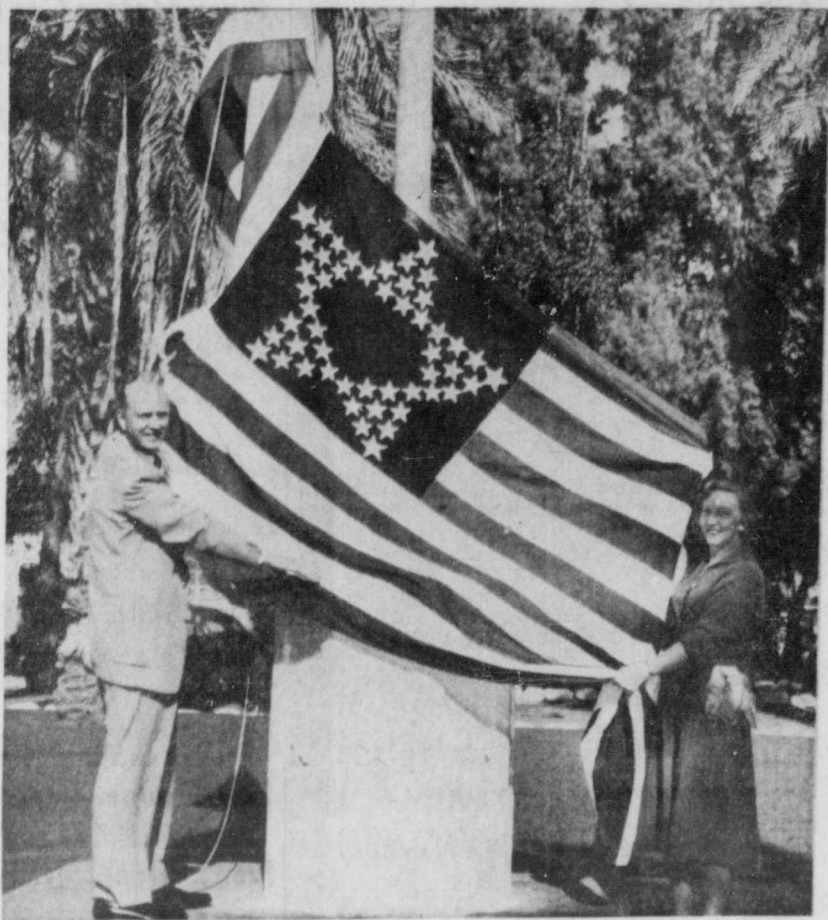

VANDER VEER said he wasn't waiting until July, 1959 for our new look Stars and Stripes. As he pointed out, President Eisenhower can't sign Alaska as the 49th state until that date.

So Vander Veer, with stars in his eyes, has designed a new flag with the 49 stars arranged in a large star on a field of blue. All the stars are white and the original 13 stripes remain.

MEANWHILE DICK is in no rush to haul down the old 48-star flag.

What happens if Hawaii achieves statehood by January 1959, and 50 stars become necessary? Vander Veer said that's the worry of the flag manufacturers and the government committee which is trying to decide on a new design.

There are more than 25,000 high school drama groups in the country and 2,300 community and civic theaters.

New Cameron Center Parking Lot Dedicated

Palm Springs' first public parking lot fronting South Palm Canyon Drive was dedicated yesterday at Cameron Center, new $5,000,000 shopping center.

Officialing were Oilman George Cameron, Jr. and Russell Wade, president and general manager, respectively, of the center and A. James Martin, executive vice president of Mayfair Markets. Mayfair's new supermarket opens at Cameron Center Thursday.

INDICATIVE OF the importance Cameron attaches to parking facilities, the dedication of the new parking lot included the erection of a sign reading: "Dedicated to the convenience and parking ease of Palm Springs shoppers."

Embracing 12 acres and located at the intersection of South Palm Canyon Drive and Mesquite Avenue, the center will ultimately have parking facilities for 10,000 cars.

CAMERON HAS many shopping center innovations planned for his center, an exciting extension of Palm Springs' downtown business district. It will be the nation's first center with a golf club flavor. One corner of the vast area, once the tribal grounds of the Cahuilla Indians, will be given over to a spacious putting green for the recreational pleasure of shoppers.

This facility will be in keeping with Palm Springs' booming golf course growth, which at the last count showed 11 links within an 18-mile desert area radius.

Cameron, who directs his extensive oil well properties in many states as well as California from his Cameron Center offices, will soon announce that three national retail chains will shortly call the center their home.

Your Car and the Law

REGISTRATION IS YOUR PROTECTION

The registration and licensing of your automobile is, in effect, a form of insurance. The complete record of the car — make, year, model and identification numbers — on file at the State Department of Motor Vehicles is your protection against theft or fraud.

And since it is a legal requirement that all motor vehicles using the public streets and highways must be registered, this record of ownership serves also as a safeguard against the wrongdoings of careless and criminal drivers.

HIT - AND - RUNNERS, robbers, murderers and just plain reprobates have been speedily brought to justice because someone jotted down a license plate number.

Three complete sets of files are kept by DMV on every vehicle registered in California. They are: Numerical, alphabetical and engine files. The numerical file is the one most widely used by law enforcement agencies, the press and other interested parties for it is here that the owner of a vehicle may be identified instantly from the license number.

INFORMATION AS TO whether an individual owns a given vehicle may be as quickly obtained through the alphabetical file, which lists the names of all registered owners.

The engine file tells what engine goes with each registered vehicle.

The Department of Motor Vehicles at its Sacramento headquarters maintains for the benefit of law enforcement a communication center second to none in the United States. It employs 12 radio and teletype operators and 22 clerks who receive, process and send vehicle registration messages to peace officers throughout the State.

THIS CENTER features a microwave radio network serving 57 stations 24 hours a day. And it has two teletype systems, one for the exclusive use of the California Highway Patrol and another known as the Justice Network serving police departments and sheriff's offices. This service is maintained 16 hours a day, from 8 a.m. to midnight.

In addition, 24-hour telephone service is maintained to handle inquiries from areas removed from the radio and teletype stations.

An average of 1,200 messages are received and answered each day by the DMV teletype operators during the two eight - hour shifts. The average number of radio inquiries in a day is approximately 150.

Palm Highlands Inn Sale Told

Sale of the Palm Highlands Inn to Dr. George Fakehany of Los Angeles was announced today by Herman and Anna Waldman, owners for the past four years of the well known hotel.

New manager will be Ed Hogan, it was reported.

The Waldmans, also former owners of El Capitan for seven years, plan to remain in Palm Springs.

HARRY OLIVER RENEWS DRIVE TO KEEP BEAUTY

THOUSAND PALMS — A firm endorsement from the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce has greeted "Desert Rat" Harry Oliver's newest crusade for desert beauty.

Oliver has launched a drive that finds him "out again posting signs and scolding—behind a smile—those sheep who eat wildflowers, those tourists who trample desert beauty, and those beer cans and Kleenexes which allow themselves to be tossed unceremoniously amid verberna and flowering primrose."

The Chamber said it was aligning itself with Oliver's "Keep the Desert Beautiful" campaign and said it wanted special attention given one of Oliver's signs. It reads:

"We are Wild West Wildflowers. Do not pick. Let it be said that we died with our roots on."

Southland Got Pre-Christmas Gift Last Month

Southern California enjoyed a pre-Christmas present of $33,041,000 from its tourist visitors during November, the All-Year Club reported today.

That much was spent here by 253,000 pleasure vacationists from other states and foreign countries during the month, according to Harry Volk, president of the community tourist advertising organization.

"THESE THIRTY - THREE millions of dollars were especially welcome," he said, "because they are 'new dollars' brought here from the economy of other regions and added to our wealth."

"They help stimulate business and increase employment."

"SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA is very fortunate to have a commodity such as sunshine and scenery which it can 'sell' to the people of other regions for a very profitable community income."

Most of the tourist spendings went directly into retail trade where they spread quickly throughout the area, Volk explained.

Never Underestimate

Schwicksershausen, Germany — (UPI) — Women have the last word in this pleasant German village high in the Dom River valley. Or do they?

Schwicksershausen, population 382, is run by a number of women. The mayor is Elizabeth Becker; Mrs. Gertrude Zengler is the village treasurer; Maria Becker is the town crier; Frau Maria Rau is the postmistress.

However, the village council consists of seven members — all men. And they appoint the mayor.
